

Call for Papers
Joint Workshops in Macroeconomics
The University of Adelaide

Expectations in Dynamic Macroeconomic Models (EDMM)

November 21st

This workshop aims to bring together leading experts in the modeling of expectations in dynamic models with applications including, but not restricted to: macroeconomics, financial economics, labor markets, IO, theory.

Continuing Education in Macroeconometrics (CEM)

November 22nd

This workshop brings together early-career researchers from universities, central banks, and other policy institutions to tool up on some recent developments in macroeconometric research methods and obtain feedback on their own research-in-progress.

We invite paper submissions to the Expectations in Dynamic Macroeconomic Models (EDMM) Workshop and the Continuing Education in Macroeconometrics (CEM) Workshop, which will be held in coordination at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Adelaide on the 21st and 22nd of November 2024.

The workshops will both feature CEM's traditional masterclasses by

- Bruce Preston (UNSW Sydney) – EDMM
- Sarah Zubairy (Texas A&M) – CEM
- Guido Ascari (University of Pavia and De Nederlandsche Bank) – CEM

A joint dinner will be held for the workshops on the evening of the 21st.

If you would like to participate in the Workshops, please submit to cem2024@adelaide.edu.au by September 15th. Please put EDMM or CEM in subject line to indicate for which workshop program you would like to be considered. Early-career researchers are particularly encouraged to participate and will be given priority for CEM presentation slots. Limited funds may be available to cover some ECR and PhD travel or accommodation expenses. Please indicate in your submission if you would like to be considered for travel funding. We expect to finalise the program by end of September.

EDMM Scientific Committee – George Evans (University of Oregon), Albert Marcet (ICREA-CREI, UPF and BSE), Bruce Preston (UNSW Sydney), Bruce McGough (University of Oregon), and Christopher Gibbs (University of Sydney)

CEM Scientific Committee – James Morley (University of Sydney), Qazi Haque (University of Adelaide), Benjamin Wong (Monash University), Firmin Doko Tchatoka (University of Adelaide)
